Price: CZK 28,500,000

The highest-lying village in the country, a mountain house with two furnished apartments and an established café in the centre of Kvilda. The brand is included in the price. An opportunity for anyone who wants the mountains and a business at the same time.

A rare opportunity for anyone who loves the mountains and coffee. A place where design, nature and an entrepreneurial streak meet. A mountain family house with two furnished apartments and the established Kvildy Café in the centre of Kvilda, the highest-lying village in the Czech Republic. The price includes the sale of the Kvildy Café brand, the handover of the kvildy.cafe Instagram account with 3,000 followers, and the photographic and video material used to promote the apartments and the café.
